

Official Nomination Guidelines for ISE National Award 2006

The Information Security Executive of the Year National Award™ 2006 (ISE National Awards 2006) will be held on Monday evening, November 6, 2006 in Orlando, Florida at the Gaylord Palms Resort as a component of the CSI Executive Retreat Featuring the ISE National Awards.

Thank you for completing the nomination application. Your assistance in recognizing these important individuals is appreciated and noted as your strong support of the industry.

The ISE National Award 2006 recognizes the individual who has demonstrated outstanding leadership in the field of information security. Awarded to chief security officers or executives in equivalent positions, the ISE National Award 2006 honors exemplary achievement and excellence in risk management, data asset protection, regulatory compliance, privacy and/or information/network security. These pivotal members of the technology community play instrumental roles in ensuring the safety and security of the corporate enterprise and that of the nation.

Nominees for the ISE National Awards will be invited to network with fellow security professionals and executive peers at the CSI Executive Retreat Featuring the ISE National Awards. This special program is produced alongside the CSI 33rd Annual Computer Security Conference and Exhibition which is also to be held at the Gaylord Palms Resort in Orlando, Florida, November 5 through 8, 2006. In their third year of partnership, CSI and Executive Alliance saw the opportunity to blend the intimate celebration and recognition factor of the ISE Awards with a special program comprised of cutting-edge CSI presentations, speakers and content along with co-produced networking opportunities and industry forums. Now, more than ever before, the nomination process, the judging process and the experience of the ISE National Award will provide eligible Information Security Executives with an unparalleled platform for visibility.

The award gala will showcase all of the nominees as well as his or her organization. The intent of the award is to provide both personal and professional visibility to these important men and women. Key to this visibility is the environment in which the nominees and finalists are presented at the award gala. Nominees are encouraged to invite their teams, their colleagues and their managers as well as their family and friends to help celebrate. We are happy to work with the executives' public relations department to ensure the maximum nominee visibility.

Nominations must be received by Friday, September 15, 2006 by email to iseNational@infosecaward.com. Nomination forms are available at www.infosecaward.com.

AWARD REQUIREMENTS:

The ISE National Award 2006 honors the individual who has made the greatest positive impact on his or her organization through risk management, enterprise data assets and privacy protection and information security. Nominees should be responsible for managing internal security organizations, mentoring and motivating staff members, developing innovative security solutions to business challenges and effectively managing and executing security strategies.

Executive Alliance and the information security industry are grateful to you for your time and effort in bringing your nominee forward for consideration as an ISE of the Year.
